WESTSIDE RESIDENTS ARE INVITED TO “A DAY IN PARADISE”

Fun, food, entertainment and recognition of Outstanding Citizens are in store for Westside residents this weekend. “A Day in Paradise,” this Saturday, April 9, 2005, will begin with a parade at 12:15 pm at Universe and Paradise Boulevard that will end at Paradise Hills Park. The festivities will continue with the presentation of the Outstanding Citizen Awards, a car show, petting zoo, rides and a doughnut-eating contest. The event is scheduled to run until 6:00 pm.

“This is the fourth year we’ve sponsored this event and each year it seems to get better and better with more activities and more people attending,” says Commissioner Tim Cummins. “I am looking forward to presenting the awards to the Outstanding Westside Citizens and taking part in this great event.”

For more information, contact the Paradise Hills Community Center at 897-8897. The community center and the park are located at 5901 Paradise Boulevard, NW.
